LOCATION

Weavers Walk is an exclusive courtyard development of shop units located just off the main prime retailing street which is very close to the new Parkway Centre, one of only two new centres opening in England in 2011.

Newbury is a prosperous local town located at the crossroads of the country with the M4 and A34 road network. The immediate population is approximately 55,000 combining with Thatcham (2001 census).

Current planning consents granted could increase the population in the town to in excess of 70,000.

DESCRIPTION

The property is a two storey retail unit offering retailing space on both ground and first floors. The property is one of 11 units in the Courtyard all of which are currently let. There is a restaurant providing an anchor and a very popular café which provides footfall throughout the day. There is pedestrian access through to a large car park to the rear. There is a communal store and disabled WC within the scheme.
